Honors Recital Saturday, May 22 at 2pm at Sherwood Conservatory, 1312 South Michigan Ave, Chicago.

The judge will select compositions to be performed that represent a range of ages and styles.

Requirements Teacher must be a member of CAMTA. No student age or grade requirements. No requirements concerning form, style, length of composition, or selection of instruments. Compositions must be in the student's own handwriting or in computer print-out personally produced by the composer.

Awards All students will receive a Certificate of Participation. Judge will select a winner and honorable mentions in each level. Winners are encouraged to enter their composition in the MTNA Composition Contest (deadline in September), and are eligible for reimbursement of half of the entry fee for that contest through CAMTA.
